SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: A railroad swing span bridge at mile 19.16 over the Saginaw River in Saginaw, MI, was permitted for construction in 1913. Between 1972 and 1982 there was only one opening of this bridge. The one opening was for a special Bicentennial exhibition in 1976. At the request of the Grand Trunk Western Railroad Co., current owner of the bridge, the regulations governing the operations of the bridge were reviewed and revised in 1982. By that time, all commercial marine activity had ceased to transit that portion of the Saginaw River. The 1982 regulation allowed the bridge to remain closed to vessel traffic. See 47 FR 4065, dated January 28, 1982. Persons wishing to express their views concerning the status of this bridge may do so by sending their comments to the office listed under ADDRESSES above. Comments must be received by December 8, 1997.

Dated: October 6, 1997.
